FOR ORGANISING A CHRISTMAS CRAFT EVENT

STEP ONE:

If it will be a big enough event, you could consider inviting someone you know who sells cards or small gifts/crafts so that people could buy Christmas presents.

Think of the best way to advertise your event. Consider social media or a what's app group. Handmade or printed invitations always work well. Keep some in your bag. Send your invitations out early - December is a busy time so get the date out early (and remember to add a start and finish time!).
